Additional information

The box below is for you to give any background information which you feel might assist the Trustee Directors in arriving at a decision.

Additional information:

Children

There are legal and practical reasons which make it difficult to pay benefits to children under the age of 18. If you have named any children under age 18 overleaf, you should also make a Will setting up a separate Trust arrangement for them and state that you have done so in the box above. You are advised to see a solicitor before making such a Will. If you do not set up a separate Trust under your Will you should give the names of two adults below who would be willing to act as trustees for the children you have nominated.
